				Run in partnership with Health Promotion, Community Education, Northern Constabulary and Scottish Ambulance Service Evaluations showed that the participants found the Roadshows very informative and useful they particularly mentioned: Roadshows were co- planned and co - delivered with support from Health Promotion staff by youth workers and volunteers. Confidence of volunteers greatly improved re delivery of inputs both planning use of resources and knowledge of subject. “Local officers of the Northern constabulary have noticed an improvement in the general level of behaviour by youngsters in and around the previously identified trouble spots in Barra. There has been a marked decrease in the number of complaints received from the public about anti-social behaviour. As a result, there has been a drop in crime reports being submitted regarding disorderly behaviour and instances of malicious damage caused by youngsters. By continuing to educate the youngsters of Barra it is hoped that future behaviour and attitudes toward alcohol and drugs will continue to improve with obvious benefits for all members of the community.” All evaluations from the above highlighted that participant’s knowledge of units, how long alcohol stays in the body and sensible drinking limits is low. Future campaigns to target these areas. Contributed towards raised awareness of sensible drinking attitudes targeted at specific target groups e.g. young people, women, men, drivers. There has been a reduction in the number of under 18’s recorded as being under the influence of alcohol and the number of under 25’s recorded as being involved in alcohol related crime. 1. 				2. No of under 25's involved in alcohol related crime in the Western Isles : 1/4/2005 – 31/3/2006 = 280. 1/4/2006 – 31/3/2007 = 211. These figures are taken from local police data.
With SHAW we will continue to offer assistance and awareness raising sessions to 4 workplaces re drug and alcohol policies, and increase number of workplaces with alcohol policies to 10 by March 2007 through SHAW	✓			3 inputs: two workplaces with SHAW Bronze Award and Drug and Alcohol policies in place. (approx. 10 managers and supervisors trained) (40 staff given awareness and need for policies) In total 10 workplaces with alcohol and drug policies. Increased knowledge and support for those employers and employees experiencing and dealing with drug problems in the workplace. Post training evaluation confirmed that staff were better informed on issues around substance misuse in the workplace. In particular, they demonstrated a clear understanding of the procedures outlined in their workplace drug and Alcohol policy. Staff showed an increased awareness in issues around alcohol e.g. units – how much they were actually drinking, and how long alcohol stayed in the body and its impact on being safe/legal to drive the next day. Written evaluation showed: That 100% found it useful and 99% found thought they would use the information from the session in the future. Verbal evaluation: Contribution to behaviour change: Maybe cut down their drinking and Would be aware of not driving the next day until the alcohol had left their body.
We will continue to roll out the programme of Alcohol Roadshows for the community in the Western Isles (2) at Health Fairs, Games and Shows over the summer period July – August 2006. We will continue to work with NCH in delivering training both to staff, volunteers and young people on alcohol and the issues around it. This will be assessed on an ongoing basis through use of evaluation questionnaires for both staff, volunteers and members and interviews with staff re their increased ability to talk with young people on alcohol and the issues around it.	✓			Eight young women with a variety of social problems have participated in a programme which looked at body image, bullying, self-esteem, relationships, contraception, Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs), drugs and alcohol, peer pressure and risk taking. All who attended have reported that they have gained confidence and information from the programmes. To explore and identify locally through the ADAT and its subgroups methods for identifying and appropriating drug supplies which enter the islands through transport and communication systems by March 2007. Evaluate through minutes of meetings.	✓			Intelligence has, for a long time suggested that controlled drugs are supplied to the Western Isles by means of lawful distribution methods such as the Royal Mail and private haulage companies. To this end, Northern Constabulary in partnership with the Western Isles ADAT group has sourced and funded a dedicated drugs detecting dog and handler. Part of the dog/handlers remit will be proactive work at all major communication points in the Western Isles with a view to disrupting criminal networks and detection of offences.
Continue work with partner agencies to gather information and target those providing a platform for drug misuse. March 06 – April 07.	✓			As part of Operation Hover, which is an Operation raised in 2005 to target the use of legitimate means to move controlled drugs to the Western Isles, a partnership was established with the proprietors of all private haulage companies in the Western Isles along with local managers of the Royal Mail, HIAL and Caledonian MacBrayne. By establishing this partnership, Northern Constabulary have obtained a great deal of assistance enabling entry to premises to scan persons and packages. This partnership is invaluable to the effective use of the drug detecting dog and handler.
Continue publication of measures re detection March 06 – April 07.	✓			Through the Western Isles and Force Public Performance reports, information is available to the public as to the measures taken by the Police to combat controlled drugs in the community.
